

Mini Seminar on Brazilian Culture

Prof. Thiago Lima Nicodemo

Feb 10th: on Sérgio Buarque de Holanda's Raízes do Brasil
Feb 17th: on Gilberto Freyre's Casa Grande e Senzala
Feb 24th: on Chico Buarque's novel Leite derramado

Tuesdays from 1.00 pm to 2:30 pm
Department seminar room (Meville Library N3060)

Foto by Francisco Emolo/Jornal da USP

The course will be taught in Portuguese. Discussion will be in English, Spanish or Portuguese
For any questions, please contact Prof. Javier Uriarte (javier.uriarte@stonybrook.edu)

Dr. Thiago Nicodemo is Professor of Brazilian History at the Universidade do Estado do Rio de Janeiro (UERJ) and Visiting Scholar at Stony Brook this spring 2015. He is a specialist in the work of Sérgio Buarque de Holanda, one of Latin America's finest essayist and intellectuals, who came to Stony Brook as visiting professor in 1966. Prof. Nicodemo is author of two books: Urdidura do Vivido. Visão do Paraíso e a Obra de Sérgio Buarque de Holanda nos Anos 1950 (2008); and Alegoria Moderna. Crítica literária e história da literatura na obra de Sérgio Buarque de Holanda (2014).