>GENDER: UNDERSTANDING THE
RHETORIC OF "GENDER IDEOLOGY" IN LATIN AMERICA

Thursday, November 21, 2019
4:00 PM in Humanities 1008

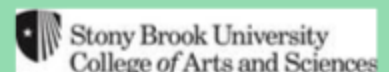

This lecture will analyze the rhetorical strategies at work in neoconservative narratives of "gender ideology," and explore the political objectives of the transnational alliance of Catholic neointegralism, evangelical fundamentalism, and neoliberalism in Latin America.

Gabriela Arguedas-Ramírez is an Associate Professor of Philosophy and Women's Studies at the Universidad de Costa Rica. She has published articles about the bioethics and biolaw, obstetric power, religious fundamentalism and sexual rights. In 2015 she presented the results of her research on obstetric violence in a thematic audience for the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights (IACHR).
