

Let's TaLK!

Teach and Learn in Korea

Info Session with free pizza!

Wednesday, February 24th, 1-2 PM

N5520 Melville Library, Center for Korean Studies

What is TaLK?

TaLK (Teach and Learn in Korea) is a Korean government sponsored internship/scholarship program which invites undergraduate students in English-speaking countries to Korea to teach English in after-school programs in elementary schools outside Seoul. TaLK scholars work for 15 hours on average a week as teacher assistants. Upon arrival, they participate in a month-long orientation through which they learn skills and knowledge to teach English to Korean students and have opportunities to create their own lesson plans before the field assignment.

Benefits:

- Round-trip airfare (approx. $1,200)
- $400 settlement allowance upon local assignment
- Health insurance & Housing provided
- Monthly stipend (approx. $1,300/month)
- SBU internship & research credits

Eligibility:

- Finished two years or 50 or more credits of undergraduate study by the end of Fall 2016 on any campus within the SUNY system
- GPA 3.0 or above
- The preference will be given to those who have elementary or above level knowledge of Korean language or have taken at least one Korea-studies related course

Application Deadline: Tuesday, March 15th
