Part II Supervisor Information & Approval:

As the supervisor of _____ you agree to comply with your responsibilities as outlined in the University at Stony Brook
(enter name of applicant/cardholder)

Procurement Card Guidelines. You understand these guidelines and will comply with the terms and conditions and subsequent revisions. You understand that the university is liable to Chase Visa for all charges made by the cardholder including charges made on a lost or stolen card before it is reported lost or stolen and that this liability is passed down to your department. You further understand that any allowable charges made by the cardholder within your department are the liability of your department. Stony Brook University or Chase may terminate use of the card at any time for any reason.

As an Approving Official for Stony Brook University Procurement Card Program, you understand that you are the control point for the integrity of the program and will monitor your department's budgets through the review of the cardholder's statement of account. You will review all transactions made by cardholders monthly, to ensure original documentation is matched to cardholder statements, take appropriate action should violations occur, and sign all monthly cardholder statements. Your monthly signature attests to the fact that all goods or services purchased were for official duties of this cardholder.

You understand that the card is the property of the university, assigned to cardholders in your department and that, in the event of willful or negligent default of the cardholder obligations, the university shall take any recovery action deemed appropriate as permitted by law. You will ensure proper department procurement procedures are followed and appropriate documentation is kept. You will take appropriate action for violations by informing the cardholder of the problem and the consequences of violation and notify the necessary authority. Furthermore, you will inform the P-Card Program Administrator of any transfer or terminations of this cardholder, and/or transfer, termination, of your designation as the Approving Official.
