

The Office of the Vice President for Research is pleased to host:

NIH DIRECTOR'S EARLY INDEPENDENCE AWARDS

TIPS FOR A SUCCESSFUL SUBMISSION

Friday, June 3 • 11 am-12 pm

This workshop will provide an overview of the 2023 NIH Director's Early Independence Award.

Presented by:

Dr. Michelle Ballan

Professor and Associate Dean for Research
School of Social Welfare

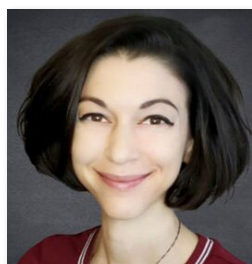

Dr. Ballan will provide an overview of the 2023 NIH Director's Early Independence Awards (DP5 Clinical Trial Optional) award, and take us step by step through the application process.

Dr. Carol Carter

SUNY Distinguished Professor
Department of Microbiology and Immunology

Dr. Carter, who will moderate this workshop, is a member of the current DP5 Editorial Board and will provide an overview of the application review process from the reviewers' perspective and describe common features of proposals that garner general enthusiasm.

Dr. Jessica Schleider

Associate Professor
Department of Psychology

2019 award winner for her work: "Harnessing Network Science to Personalize Scalable Interventions for Adolescent Depression" will provide best practices to submit a winning proposal.

All faculty and staff are welcome to attend.
