

Resolution 2025-02 in Support of the Stony Brook University Senate's Establishment of a Constitutional Review & Convention¹

October 3, 2024

WHEREAS , the Stony Brook University Senate plays a critical role in promoting shared governance, academic excellence, and the overall well-being of the university community; and

WHEREAS , the effectiveness of the University Senate is contingent upon a clear, comprehensive, and well-structured constitution that outlines its purpose, roles, responsibilities, and procedures; and

WHEREAS , the constitution of the University Senate serves as the foundational document guiding its operations and decision-making processes, ensuring transparency, accountability, and representation for all members of the university community; and

WHEREAS , periodic review of the constitution is essential to ensure that it remains relevant, effective, and reflective of the evolving needs and priorities of the university; and

WHEREAS , establishing a Constitutional Review would provide an organized and collaborative approach to assessing the current constitution, identifying areas for improvement, and proposing necessary amendments; and

WHEREAS , the involvement of diverse stakeholders, including faculty, staff, students, and administration, in the review process is crucial to fostering inclusivity, transparency, and shared ownership of the governing documents of the University Senate; and

WHEREAS , many academic institutions have successfully implemented similar committees to ensure that their governing documents evolve in response to changes in institutional priorities and best practices;
